

3 THINGS TO DO TOMORROW

Music

World Music at Palo Alto

More than 50 jazz, blues, classical, rock, pop and choral groups will perform in plazas and on street corners for the third annual Palo Alto World Music Day. 3-7:30 p.m. Sunday. Along University Avenue. Free. www.pamusicday.org.

Events

Father's Day at History San Jose

Dad can try his luck at gold panning or go on a handcar ride at History San Jose's "Father's Day Family Day." 11:30 a.m.-3:30 p.m. Sunday. Admission, $5-$8, with kids under 6 free. History Park, 1650 Senter Road. www.historysanjose.org.

Theater

Last day for 'World of Sports'

Sunday at 2 p.m. is your last chance to catch the comedy "The Complete World of Sports (abridged)" by the Reduced Shakespeare troupe. $35-$79. San Jose Repertory Theatre, 101 Paseo de San Antonio. www.sjrep.org.

— Mercury News